AN INVITATION TO WORSHIP

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE: “Ain-a That Good News”. Trad. Spiritual

SILENCIO

Come into an awareness of God's presence, trusting that God can meet you and address you in the Word you will encounter. Offer up whatever may interfere with you being able to hear God's address to you.

*CALL TO WORSHIP:

Beyond our busyness,
Above the cold winter floor there is a glory rising
born of heaven
and reaching out to each one of us a light that shines through the clouds an invitation seeking all of who we are that transfigures the world that transforms darkness into hope that brings life from a cross where old life ends and new life is born
In glory Jesus meets us here raising us from depths of valley
to the height of the mountain carrying the weight of our humanity to the heights of heavens glory.

Let us worship this morning, listening to those words said long ago,

“This is my Son, my Beloved; listen to him!”

~ written by Rev. Rob Smith, Spirit of Life Presbyterian Church

*OPENING HYMN: “For the Healing of the Nations”

Chalice # 668

*OPENING PRAYER: God of Mystery, God of Transfiguration, help us to view the world differently. Help us to experience places where heaven and earth meet, where the veil is thin, where we view life through Your lens. Help us to find the holy wherever we are, to experience mystery and wonder. May we experience awe that causes us to tremble in Your presence. May we hear Your voice call to us, and may we feel You gently help us up when we are down. May we experience the holy all around us, knowing You are ever-present and faithful. Your steadfast love endures forever, in us, around us, and beyond us. Amen.

LECTIO

Read the scripture very slowly. Ask, “God, what are you saying to me?”

SCRIPTURE READING: “Mark 9: 2-8” (Red pew Bible pg. 919)

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, “This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!” Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus.

As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead could mean.

MEDITATIO

Take time, stop, breathe, meditate slowly on questions of the text.

Why six days? Why a high mountain? Transfigured
=Meta mah fah O

Why white? Why so dazzling? Why did Peter, John and James get to see this? How did they respond? What did they do? Why? How does this speak to you?

ORATIO

What is the prayer and cry of your heart that is evoked by this passage? What does your heart long to say to God? Is there some healing you want to ask for? Is there a confession of the heart? Is there a prayer for another you want to offer in response to your meditatio? Did the meditatio awaken gratitude for anything? Write a short prayer that is your response to this text.

CONTEMPLATIO

Rest in the stillness of God. Open yourself to God's presence in the silence, actively yielding yourself to God, be open and receptive to whatever God may give you, do in you or with you. believe in our potential for co-creating with you a future of flourishing for all life. We give thanks for this meal, a reminder of your unending grace and abiding companionship. Amen.
